

* LIFC - MATERNITY HOME*H-232*H-232.1 Who Shall Be Payee

A minor unmarried parent in a maternity home may be her own payee if she has no plans to live with a parent, or other adult qualified relative after her child is born. The * LIFC application is taken in the parish in which the maternity home is located.

If the minor unmarried parent plans to return to the home of a parent or other adult qualified relative after her child is born, the parent or relative must be payee and the application taken in that person's name and in their parish of residence.

A * LIFC child who enters a maternity home shall remain included in the existing certification if the child plans to return to the home.

H-232.2 Income

If the minor unmarried parent in a maternity home plans to return to the home of a parent, the income of the parent is counted. Refer to H-221.4, Establish Need.
